RESPONDENT DAVIS'S ADVISORY TO THE COURT

Jeffrey Ronald Prible is a Texas state inmate seeking federal habeas relief from his capital murder conviction and death sentence. The Court has set an evidentiary hearing to begin April 29, 2019. ECF No. 212. Pursuant this Court's directive, the Director contacted Kelly Siegler regarding her availability to offer live-video testimony later this week. Ms. Sielger indicated that she is in Burns, Oregon through Friday and will do whatever she can to make herself available to the Court. She indicated she will be available Thursday, May 2, 2019, from 12:00pm to 5:00pm PST (2:00 to 7:00pm CST). She indicated that she could also potentially be available later in the day on Wednesday, May 1, 2019, after her scheduled meetings have concluded, but that she has no way of knowing how long into the afternoon those meetings will run. Ms. Siegler further indicated that her crew would assist her in setting the equipment on her end to facilitate the live-video feed.

Unless the Court has another preference for the manner in which Sielger's live-video testimony is presented to the Court, the undersigned will inquire into whether and how the Director can facilitate the presentation of that testimony. Additionally, given the parties prior agreement regarding Siegler's deposition designations—and in order to best maximize Siegler's—availability for live-video testimony, the Director will propose that the Court accept the parties' previous video-taped deposition designations with respect to Ms. Siegler, and that her live testimony supplement the deposition testimony already give in this cause.

Respectfully submitted,
